

EMILY HAUPTMANN

Department of Political Science
Western Michigan University
Kalamazoo, MI 49008
(269) 387-5695

emily.hauptmann@wmich.edu

Current Position

Professor, Department of Political Science, Western Michigan University

Education

Ph.D.	University of California, Berkeley Political Science, 1992
M.A.	University of California, Berkeley Political Science, 1984
M.A.	The Johns Hopkins University German Literature, 1983
B.A.	The Johns Hopkins University Political Science, 1983

Publications

Books

Putting Choice Before Democracy: A Critique of Rational Choice Theory. 1996.
(SUNY Press).

Articles

“Undoing the Opposition between Theory and Methods.” 2009. Newsletter of the APSA Organized Section for Qualitative and Multi-Methods Research 7 (1).

“From Opposition to Accommodation: How Rockefeller Foundation Grants Redefined Relations between Political Theory and Social Science in the 1950s.” 2006. American Political Science Review 100 (4).

“A Local History of ‘the Political’.” 2004. Political Theory 32 (1).

“The Reasonable and the Rational Capacities in Political Analysis.” 2002. Paul Clements, co-author. Politics and Society 30 (1).

“Can Less Be More? Leftist Deliberative Democrats’ Critique of Participatory Democracy.” 2001. Polity 33 (3).

“Deliberation = Legitimacy = Democracy.” 1999. Political Theory 27 (6).

“If Deliberative Democracy is the Solution, What is the Problem?” 1999. Papers published by the Center for the Study of Ethics in Society, Western Michigan University.

Book Chapters

“Defining ‘Theory’ in Postwar Political Science.” 2005. In The Politics of Method in the Human Sciences: Positivism and its Epistemological Others, edited by George Steinmetz. (Duke University Press).

Papers available on-line

“The Constitution of Behavioralism: The Influence of the Ford Foundation’s Behavioral Sciences Program on Political Science.” 2009. Prepared for the 6th Annual Workshop in the History of Economics as History of Social Science, École Normale Supérieure de Cachan. (<http://economix.u-paris10.fr/fr/activites/colloques/?id=91&page=programme>)

“Fighting Words: How Political Scientists and the Big Foundations Defined Democracy during the Cold War,” 2007. Lecture delivered at Park University in the Jerzy Hauptmann Lecture Series. Park University (<http://www.park.edu/grad/lecture.aspx>)

Report to the Rockefeller Foundation on archival research conducted in May 2005 at the Rockefeller Archive Center. ( <http://archive.rockefeller.edu>.)

Work in Progress

Big Money and the Remaking of Postwar Political Science (tentative title)
Book manuscript

Recent Honors and Awards

2009 Outstanding Graduate Student Mentor, Department of Political Science, Western Michigan University

2006,

2005 Visiting Scholar, Center for Studies in Higher Education, University of California, Berkeley

2005 “The Transformation of Political Theory, 1950-1970: The Case of the University of California, Berkeley,” Rockefeller Archive Center Grant

Selected Conference Presentations

“The Constitution of Behavioralism: The Influence of the Ford Foundation’s Behavioral Sciences Program on Political Science”

6th Annual Workshop in the History of Economics as History of Social Science,
École Normale Supérieure de Cachan, 2009

“The Development of the Berkeley Critique of the Normative/Empirical Distinction”

American Political Science Association Meeting
Philadelphia, PA., September 2006

Participant in Roundtable on Disciplinary History

Southwest Social Science Association
San Antonio, TX, April 2006

Participant in Roundtable, “Hanna Pitkin and Interpretive Social Science”

Western Political Science Association
Oakland, CA., March 2005

Roundtable Organizer and Participant, “Why History Matters”

Midwest Political Science Association Meeting
Chicago, IL., April, 2003

“‘Our Highest Aim’: democracy and the public role of the political theorist”

Midwest Political Science Association Meeting
Chicago, IL., April 2001

“‘No Third House’: Berkeley’s Reluctant School of Political Theory”

International Political Science Association Meeting
Quebec City, Quebec, August 2000

Participant in Roundtable, “The Idea of Institutions in the History of American Political Science”

American Political Science Association Meeting,
Washington, D.C., September 1997

Professional Service and Participation

Service to Professional Associations

Association for Political Theory, co-founder; conference committee (2002-2003); governance committee (2003-2005); Executive Co-Director (2005-2007)

Conference Organizing

2003 conference of the Association for Political Theory, Calvin College, Grand Rapids, Michigan; member of conference committee, local arrangements committee

Reviewer

American Journal of Political Science (since 2005)

American Political Science Review (since 2002)

Governance (since 2000)

Journal of Politics (since 2006)

Journal of Theoretical Politics (since 2002)

Political Research Quarterly (since 1994)

Political Theory (since 1994)

Polity (since 2003)