

MATTHEW S. MINGUS, Ph.D.

matthew.mingus@wmich.edu

Overview of Vita

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. in Public Administration, University of Colorado, Denver, 1999
- Master of Public Administration, University of Victoria, British Columbia, 1991
- Bachelor of Arts, Summa Cum Laude, University of Denver, Colorado, 1988

EXPERIENCE

- ❖ Professor of Governance, School of Public Affairs and Administration, Western Michigan University, 1998-present. Experienced public administration researcher and educator. Research focuses on democratic reform and federalism, the changing nature of borders/sovereignty, and cross-border interorganizational networks.
- ❖ Adjunct Full Professor, School of Political Science and Public Administration, University of Electronic Science and Technology of China, Chengdu, Sichuan, P.R. China, 2011-2014.
- ❖ Senior Governance Specialist, U.S. Department of State, 2009-2010, served on the embedded Provincial Reconstruction Team based at Camp Taji, Iraq.
- ❖ Consulting with the Naval Postgraduate School, the U.S. Army War College, Cyprus Amax Minerals, the Colorado Department of Human Services, the British Columbia Ministry of Forests, and several NGOs.
- ❖ Five years experience managing community-based, non-profit organizations in Colorado and Michigan, 1991-1996. Included working directly for the boards of directors, supervising all program staff, developing and managing the annual budget and evaluation plans, community and media relations, and securing funding.
- ❖ One year experience at Finance and Treasury Board Canada, 1989-1999. Provided Cabinet ministers and staffers with communications materials, media content analysis, and economic information on the proposed VAT tax.
- ❖ Cultural competence developed through extensive work experience with Chinese, Native Americans, Iraqis, Latinos, Quebecois, the U.S. military, and over a hundred international students.

KEY AWARDS/RECOGNITIONS

- Recognized as one of top 50 emerging public administration scholars (Minnowbrook III selection in 2008)
- Fulbright Research Chair in Public Policy, Governance, and Public Administration, Ottawa, Ontario (2005-2006)
- Harry S. Truman Scholar for Colorado (1986)

PUBLICATIONS

- Research published in Public Administration Review, International Journal of Public Administration, Journal of Comparative Policy Analysis, Canadian Foreign Policy, Journal of Borderlands Studies, Administrative Theory and Praxis, Public Administration Quarterly, and elsewhere.
- Numerous chapters in edited books, including the Handbook of Administrative Reform: An International Perspective and the Handbook of Decision Making.
- Three peer-reviewed entries in SAGE's Encyclopedia of Governance I and II.

Detailed vita at http://homepages.wmich.edu/~mingusm/Mingus_Vita.pdf